About Islamic Microfinance Awards

Islamic Microfinance awards are a signature initiative of AlHuda CIBE aimed to recognize the industry leaders and to promote the concept of poverty alleviation. Award distribution ceremonies are conducted to highlight the best practices in Islamic Microfinance and celebrate the success of institutions and individuals, with an ultimate objective of promoting social responsibility, Shari'ah authenticity and commitment to Islamic Microfinance.

Selection Criteria

At the heart of the selection methodology, the comprehensive research undertaken by AlHuda CIBE. There are two ways for nominations are determined. The first is where nominations are accepted from industry players who would like to be considered for an Islamic Microfinance Awards in a particular category. This is the case for "Self Nominations." The second is where the research team recommends to the Nomination Committee the names of the institutions and individuals, which their research supports for an Islamic Microfinance Awards.

These prestigious awards provide ample opportunities to everyone in the industry to compete by excelling in their respective fields and promoting themselves through media and other means of communication.
