About Francophone Countries

French is considered as the world's third most spoken language and it is an official language in 29 countries. According to a 2014 estimate by the "Organisation internationale de la Francophonie", 274 million people worldwide can speak French. As per a careful estimate, the number of Muslim French speakers is comparatively more in African countries. Many Muslim Countries e.g. Senegal, Ivory Coast, Mauritania, Burkina Faso, AlJazair etc. are also utilizing this language as a first language. By knowing the importance of this language AlHuda CIBE launches the dedicated online program on Islamic Banking & Finance in French language so that Islamic Banking & Finance can be promoted in Francophone countries.

Islamic Banking and Finance is growing rapidly in many French-speaking countries like Senegal, Ivory Coast, Togo, Tunis, Morocco, Aljazair, Mauritius, Cameroon and also in some other countries. While, there is no facility of Islamic Banking literature, education and training in French language due to which more than 26 French speaking countries are facing problems. Therefore, AlHuda CIBE is organizing a training program on Basics and Practical Aspects of Islamic Banking, Takaful & Islamic Microfinance. So, this training program will appear as a hope and will surely promote Islamic Financing in French-speaking countries.
