About Interest Banking and Finance

Islamic Banking and Finance has experienced notable growth and evolution globally, with expanding reach beyond traditional Islamic finance hubs. Regulatory frameworks have been refined to provide clearer guidance, fostering a supportive environment for Islamic financial institutions. Fintech integration is on the rise, enhancing customer experiences and operational efficiency. Sustainability and ethical finance have gained prominence, with institutions focusing on environmentally responsible initiatives and social impact. Financial inclusion remains a key objective, particularly in regions with large Muslim populations. Ongoing innovation in product offerings, cross-border collaboration, and digital banking platforms reflect the industry's commitment to adaptability and accessibility. Education initiatives continue to raise awareness about the principles and benefits of interest-free banking. In response to economic challenges, Islamic banking institutions are emphasizing financial resilience and support for customers facing uncertainties, contributing to the sector's continued prominence in the global financial landscape.

About Uzbekistan

Uzbekistan is a doubly landlocked country located in Central Asia that borders the countries of Afghanistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, and Turkmenistan. Uzbekistan has a varied landscape that includes a rolling sandy desert, mountains along the border with Tajikistan, and the Aral Sea in the west. The government system is a republic under authoritarian presidential rule, with little power outside the executive branch; the chief of state is the president, and the head of government is the prime minister. Uzbekistan has a mixed economy in which there is limited private freedom, but the economy remains highly controlled by the government. Total population is Population, total 35,648,100 (Muslim 88% (mostly Sunni), Eastern Orthodox 9%, other 3%).
